Texell Credit Union to Present Virtual Business Financial Literacy Series

Temple, TX (April 16, 2021) – Texell Credit Union will present a virtual business financial literacy series beginning with “What Can the SBA Do for You?” from 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm on Thursday, April 22, 2021. These virtual seminars are free to attend on Zoom.

The presenters are:
Jason Ehler, McLennan SBDC representative
Derenda Fisher, SBA representative

The full series includes:
April 22 – What Can the SBA Do for You?
May 20 – Business Financial Literacy
June 17 – How to Apply for an SBA Loan

Participants in the series will learn about the range of services offered by the SBA, the business records they should be keeping, and where to get help with an SBA loan application. A Question and Answer period will be held at the end of each seminar to allow existing and future business owners to get information specific to their needs.

“Financial Literacy is important to Texell,” affirms Amy Merriman, Texell’s Chief Operating Officer. “This is our first time offering training specifically for the business community, and we’re excited to provide this opportunity to our neighbors.”
