Texell to Feed Lineworkers and First Responders

Temple, TX (May 24, 2024) – In the wake of Wednesday’s severe weather, Texell Credit Union will be providing free meals to lineworkers and first responders in the West Temple area as they support the community.

“We’re so happy to be part of the West Temple community in our new headquarters,” said Tony Hale, President and CEO of Texell Credit Union. “We want to show our appreciation for the first responders and lineworkers working so hard to help during this difficult time.”

Food trucks from Pustka Family Barbeque and El Hombre Taco will be on-site at Texell’s headquarters at 7803 Members Parkway from noon to 5 pm on Wednesday, May 29th.

For assistance or questions, call or text 254.773.1604.
