

Dollar Squad

SPENDY
Trying to keep up with the Jones' is never the idea. Spendy is always left wanting more.

EARNIE
There's nothing, and I mean nothing, like making the most of it for the next day.

MOOCH
Being cute and pretty, however, doesn't mean you're poor.

CHARITY
A true gem, Charity is the answer to every kid's dream.

CASH
Everybody wants to spend time with the guy. But not everybody can. He's got a plan before you know it.

SAVVY
Some brains are there to be practical spending habits. The little red one is always making sense.

CHARGER
When he gets Credit Union money, you know he's responsible with money and you can't take it as Charger's little game.

When the threat of frivolous spending is real, an elite group of heroes will rise up and teach kids the value of a dollar.

Texell's Dollar Squad Account offers a way to help teach money management to kids ages 12 and under, with a savings account and activities designed to make saving fun.
