Texell Credit Union to Present Social Security Strategies Seminar
"Five Rules You Should Know About Social Security"

Temple, TX (Sept. 22, 2022) – Texell Credit Union will host a social security seminar from 10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 8, 2022. The seminar "Five Rules You Should Know About Social Security" is $10 to attend and will be held at Hilton Garden Inn, Temple.

Plan for your financial future by making an informed decision on when and how to start your Social Security benefits. This seminar covers the factors that affect your benefits such as your age, spouse, ex-spouse, and deceased spouse benefits.

"Deciding when to file for social security benefits is a life-changing decision," states Amy Merriman, Texell's Chief Operating Officer. "Weighing the factors with guidance sets you up for success. This seminar makes these factors and the filing process understandable."

The seminar is presented by Steve Tatro, Consultant & Owner at AIF Retirement Resources. With decades of experience in retirement services, Tatro provides a variety of solutions to help meet financial goals at any milestone.
