Texell Credit Union to Host Free College Prep Seminar "Options and Expectations"

Temple, TX (June 29, 2022) – Texell Credit Union will host a live seminar from 6:00 – 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, July 12, 2022. The "Options and Expectations" seminar is the third and final in the College Prep Seminar Series, ideal for high school juniors, seniors, and their parents. This free event is open to the public, but seating is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis.

The workshop will be an open forum and include admission representatives from Baylor University, Temple College, University of Mary Hardin-Baylor, and Texas A&M University-Central Texas. After introductions and discussions about how to apply and register, attendees can ask questions about preparing for college.

The event will be in person at the Hilton Garden Inn's Trinity Jr. Ballroom in Temple. Light refreshments will be served.

"Preparing for college can feel overwhelming for both parents and students," states Amy Merriman, Texell's Chief Operating Officer. "The good news is, there are several resources available. We're excited to bring this educational opportunity to the community and help our members and their high schoolers plan for college."
