Texell Credit Union Named a Best Credit Union to Work For

Temple, TX (August 30, 2023) – For a third time, Texell Credit Union is recognized as one of the Best Credit Unions to Work For in the nation by American Banker. Texell places 31st in 2023’s survey. Winners were selected based on surveys from Best Companies Group that examined overall employee satisfaction and the benefits and policies of the credit unions.

Texell was one of only four Texas credit unions and the only Central Texas credit union to make the national list. Texell is also the largest Texas credit union to receive this recognition. The full Best Credit Unions to Work For list is available online at americanbanker.com.

“At Texell, we work together to become a better credit union every day by supporting our team members,” said Tony Hale, Texell’s President and CEO. “We strive to create a culture that helps our employees succeed, and we ensure that service to our members and service to each other are top priorities. Because of our teamwork and accountability, Texell is well-positioned for continued success.”

Determining the Best Credit Unions to Work For involves a two-survey process. The first survey examines employee satisfaction in eight areas, including leadership and planning, culture and communication, and overall engagement. A second survey evaluates each credit union’s workplace policies, practices, and benefits. The combined scores determine the final ranking of the best credit unions. Best Companies Group manages the overall process and analyzes the data using their expertise to determine the final ranking.
